

Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba

83rd Birthday Celebration

Sunday, Nov 23rd
From
9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Manav Seva Mandir
(upstairs hall)
101 S Church St.,
Bensenville, IL 60106

"I do not accost one particular date in the calendar as My birthday, for I consider the day when Divinity blossoms in your heart as My birth-day in you. Therefore, each of you should individually celebrate such a day as My birthday. The day when you resolve to practice My advice, to follow My directives, to translate My message into acts of service, and to engage in spiritual discipline -- that day is My birthday for you." – Baba.

About Our Guest Speaker:

Ms. Karuna Sarup-Munshi is a Gold medalist in M.A., Philosophy from the Anantapur campus of Sri Sathya Sai University in India (1980-1986). Four generations of her family have been in close proximity to Bhagawan, including her grand-parents, parents, family, and children. Her daughter studied in Baba's elementary school in Puttaparthi for 5 years (1996-2001). In her immediate family, eight members have studied in various Sai educational institutes in Puttaparthi and nearby Anantapur. She has worked in the print and television media, as well as in the social justice movement. She is also an experienced journalist and has written a couple of articles for the heart-to-heart journal of Radiosai.org. Currently, she works as the Office Administrator of the Sathya Sai School of Toronto in Canada. Also, she has been instrumental in the planning and coordination of the now popular "Walk For Values" in Toronto, which is an annual community walk to promote the values of Truth, Non-Violence, Right-Conduct, Peace and Love.
